

Ski Safe - British Water Ski Child Protection Policy & Procedures

Ski Safe have fun

NSPCC
Cruelty to children must stop. FULL STOP.

Foreword

Sport can and does have a powerful and positive influence on people – especially young people¹, not only can it provide opportunities for enjoyment and achievement; it can also develop valuable qualities such as self-esteem, leadership and teamwork. These positive effects can only take place if sport is in the right hands – in the hands of those who place the welfare of all young people first and adopt practices to support, protect and empower them.

British Water Ski is committed to ensuring that all young people who participate in Waterskiing² have a safe and positive experience.

British Water Ski is committed to developing and implementing policies and procedures which ensure that everyone knows and accepts their responsibility in relation to their duty of care for young people. It is committed to ensuring that there are correct and comprehensive reporting procedures, and promoting good practice and sound recruitment procedures for all individuals working within Waterskiing. British Water Ski recognises that it is not the responsibility of those individuals working in Waterskiing to determine if abuse has taken place, but it is their responsibility to act upon and report any concerns.

This policy sets out a framework to fulfil British Water Ski’s commitment to good practice and the protection of young people in its care within Waterskiing.

A variety of titles have been used in this policy document to describe the people working (full or part time, paid or voluntary) within Waterskiing, such as; ‘Staff’, ‘Official’, ‘Coach’, ‘Instructor’, ‘Club Official’, ‘Volunteer’ etc. This policy applies either directly or indirectly to all individuals working within Waterskiing, (in a paid or voluntary capacity) according to their level of contact with young people in the sport.

If you have any doubt as to its relevance to your role please contact the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer.

Andy Harris
Chair, British Water Ski

¹The term young people throughout this policy refers to those aged under 18 years.
²The term Waterskiing throughout this policy refers to all those recognised disciplines by British Water Ski including; Wakeboarding (and Wakeskating), Racing, Barefoot, Kneeboarding, Cable Skiing, Disabled, Tournament and Recreational.

1. Policy Statement

➡ 1.1 Responsibilities

All British Water Ski affiliated Clubs will:

- Accept the moral and legal responsibility to implement procedures to provide a duty of care for young people, safeguard their wellbeing and protect them from abuse;
- Respect and promote the rights, wishes and feelings of young people;
- Recruit, train and supervise their employees and volunteers so as to adopt best practice to safeguard and protect young people from abuse, and themselves against allegations;
- Require staff and volunteers to adopt and abide by the British Water Ski Child Protection Policy and Procedures which incorporate the British Water Ski Code of Ethics and Conduct;
- Respond to any complaints about poor practice or allegations of abuse.

➡ 1.2 Principles

The guidance given in the procedures is based on the following principles:

- This policy recognises and builds on the legal and statutory definitions of a child;
- A young person is recognised as being under the age of 18 years (Children's Act 1989 definition);
- An adult has the moral and statutory duty for the care, custody and control of any child under the age of 18 under their supervision;
- The child's welfare is paramount;
- All young people, whatever their age, culture, any disability they may have, gender, language, racial origin, religious belief and sexual identity have the right to protection from abuse;
- All incidents of poor practice or suspicions of poor practice and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately;
- All young people have the right to participate in Waterskiing in an enjoyable and safe environment;
- Young people have the right to expect appropriate support in accordance with their personal and social development with regard to their involvement in the sport of Waterskiing;

- It is the responsibility of the child protection experts and agencies to determine whether or not abuse has taken place but it is everyone's responsibility to report any concerns;
- Confidentiality should be upheld in line with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Human Rights Act 2000.

Working in partnership with young people, their parents' and other agencies is essential for the protection of young people. Although British Water Ski affiliated Clubs recognise the statutory responsibility of Social Services to ensure the welfare of young people and work with the Local Safeguarding Children's Board (LSCB) to comply with its procedures, child protection has a broader remit within the sport of Waterskiing. All those involved in the management of young people in Waterskiing have a duty to ensure that they are:

- Allowed access to the sport in a way that is appropriate for their age and ability;
- Coached and trained by appropriately qualified staff;
- Not required to participate in so many competitions, or to attend training sessions, as to become a threat to their well being;
- Not subjected to any form of discriminatory abuse from any source;
- Not subjected to bullying or undue pressure from any source;
- Encouraged to achieve their full potential at all levels;
- Instructed how to behave on and off the water;
- Afforded respect, confidentiality and privacy in a competing and training situation and any other Waterskiing environment.

➡ 1.3 Implementation

The British Water Ski Child Protection Policy and Procedures shall be adopted in accordance with Appendix B by the following:

- British Water Ski and its affiliated Clubs and its Members.
- All other bodies involved in the sport of Waterskiing in the United Kingdom which provide the opportunity to work (either on a paid or voluntary basis) with children and young people up to the age of 18.

NSPCC
Cruelty to children must stop. FULL STOP.

➡ 1.4 Assent

All individuals involved in Waterskiing under the jurisdiction of British Water Ski at every level including participants, Officials, Instructors/Coaches², Administrators, Club Officials, parents and spectators agree to abide by the British Water Ski Code of Ethics and Conduct (“Code”) (Appendix C). All such individuals by participating or being involved in Waterskiing are deemed to have assented to and as such recognise and adhere to the principles and responsibilities embodied in the Code.

➡ 1.5 Child Protection Regulations

The Child Protection Regulations (Appendix B) shall become a new condition of affiliation and/or become incorporated in the constitution of each of the British Water Ski Federation, its affiliated Clubs and all other affiliated bodies in the United Kingdom as referred to in paragraph 1.3 above and shall provide a new disciplinary process under each body’s respective Disciplinary Rules.

➡ 1.6 Monitoring Procedures

The British Water Ski Child Protection Policy and Procedures will be regularly monitored and a full policy review will take place tri-annually. The following situations may also evoke a review of the policy:

- Any changes in legislation;
- Any changes in governance of the sport;
- The result of a significant case.

¹ The term parent/s throughout this policy refers to parent/s, carer/s and guardian/s.

² The term Coach/Instructor maybe used interchangeably throughout this policy, it refers to anyone qualified (who holds a valid licence) by British Water Ski to instruct Waterskiing.

2. Safe Recruitment

The vast majority of Coaches, Instructors, Officials, volunteers are committed, dedicated people who are motivated to work within the sport for commendable reasons. However, it is important that all reasonable steps are taken to ensure that unsuitable people or people with inappropriate motivation are prevented from working with young people. The following procedures should be adopted and applied consistently when appointing a Coach, Instructor, Official or volunteer in either a voluntary or paid capacity full or part time. Under the Protection of Children Act 1999, all individuals working on behalf of, or otherwise representing, an organisation are treated as employees whether working in a paid or voluntary capacity.

➡ 2.1 Advertising

When any form of advertising is used to recruit staff or volunteers, the following information should be reflected:

- Aims of the Club and where appropriate, the particular programme involved;
- Key responsibilities of the role;
- Level of experience or qualifications required, particularly if experience of working with young people is an advantage;
- The Club’s open and positive stance on child protection and equal opportunities;
- The use of Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) Disclosures as part of the recruitment and selection process.

➡ 2.2 Pre-Application Information

Pre-application information sent to interested or potential applicants should include:

- A job description, including roles and responsibilities;
- A person specification which clearly states qualifications and experience required;
- An application form (Template Two);
- A self-disclosure form (Template One).

➡ 2.3 Application Forms

All applicants, whether paid or voluntary, full or part time positions should complete an application form. An application form which has been designed to elicit the necessary information is on Template Two.

Contact details of two written references (not relatives) should be provided, one of which should be a previous employer or Club, who have agreed to provide written comment on the individual’s experience and suitability to work with young people. References should only be taken up when the position has been offered to the applicant (Template Three).

➡ 2.4 Short Listing

Independent short listing by the designated committee will be made for each post in accordance with the application form and the relevant person specification. In the interests of efficiency, self disclosure forms should be completed by all short listed candidates. This will allow for questioning of short listed candidates about their ‘disclosure’ prior to any offer of employment being made.

→ 2.5 Interviews

A formal interview is always required for positions involving working with young people. The interview should be carried out according to acceptable protocol and recommendations¹.

→ 2.6 Disclosures

All those with significant access to or responsibility for young people will be required to complete an enhanced level CRB Disclosure. All those with occasional access to young people i.e. all Club volunteers and employees who have not been required to complete a CRB will be required to complete a self-disclosure form (Template One) and be subject to the British Water Ski Recruitment Process.

British Water Ski recommends anyone over the age of 18, with substantial access to young people or anyone with a managerial responsibility for individuals in this position, should complete a CRB Disclosure. The CRB Disclosure and the self-disclosure form must be completed once every three years.

If you are unsure as which staff (paid or voluntary) require a complete CRB Disclosure contact the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer.

If you have any concerns regarding information received on a self-disclosure form, contact the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer.

→ 2.7 Appointment

The successful applicant should be issued with an offer letter. It should specify full details and requirement of the position and any probation period if appropriate. The applicant should be informed that the appointment is subject to satisfactory CRB Disclosure and two references. An individual may be allowed to commence their duties (at the Clubs' discretion) but care should be taken to ensure that a senior member of staff is always present.

All staff, paid and voluntary, will undergo a formal induction in which:

- Their qualifications as a Coach/Official are substantiated through British Water Ski;
- They complete a profile to identify training needs/aspirations;
- They are reminded that they have agreed to abide by the British Water Ski Code of Ethics and Conduct (Appendix C), and they may face disciplinary action if there is an allegation that the Code has been broken;
- The expectations, roles and responsibilities of the job are clarified (e.g. thorough a formal or informal work programme or goal setting exercise);

- The British Water Ski Child Protection Policy and Procedures are explained and training needs established;
- If practicable, the new recruit should be mentored by an experienced person.

→ 2.8 Training

Checks are only part of the process to protect young people from possible abuse. Appropriate training will enable individuals to recognise their responsibilities with regard to their own good practice and the reporting of suspected poor practice/concerns of possible abuse.

British Water Ski will provide training opportunities for people involved/working with young people, details of which will be communicated throughout the sport and updated periodically.

→ 2.9 Monitoring and Appraisal

At regular intervals (or following a particular programme) all employees or volunteers should be given the opportunity to receive formal (e.g. through an appraisal) feedback, to identify training needs and set new goals. Club Management should be sensitive to any concerns about poor practice or abuse and act on them at an early stage following the guidelines in this document. The Clubs' Management should also offer appropriate support, through liaison with the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer, to those who report concerns/complaints.

→ 2.10 Complaints and Disciplinary Procedures

Clubs should ensure that parents and young people are aware of the complaints and disciplinary procedures detailed in this document.

→ 2.11 Application From Within the Club

If an individual from within the Club wishes to move to a post with substantial access to young people, that individual must go through the application process described in 2.3.

¹Good advice on general recruitment, interview techniques, and good practice is contained in the Running Sport publication 'Employment Matters' and the sports coach UK publication 'Investing in Coaches - A Guide to Local Coaching Development' (both available from Coachwise Ltd. on 0113 231 1310).

3. Promoting Good Practice with Young People

Introduction

Child abuse, particularly sexual abuse, can generate strong emotions in those facing such a situation. It is important to understand these feelings and not allow them to interfere with your judgement about any action to take. Abuse can occur within many situations including the home, school and the sporting environment. Some individuals actively seek employment or voluntary work with young people in order to harm them.

A Coach, Teacher, Official or volunteer may have regular contact with young people and be an important link in identifying cases where a young person needs protection. All suspicious cases of poor practice should be reported following the guidelines in this document.

When a young person enters a Club having been subjected to child abuse outside the sporting environment, sport can play a crucial role in improving the young person's self esteem. In such instances the Club must work with the appropriate agencies to ensure the young person receives the required support.

→ 3.1 Good Practice Guidelines

All staff should be encouraged to demonstrate exemplary behaviour in order to protect young people and themselves from allegations. The following are common sense examples of how to create a positive culture and environment within Waterskiing:

3.1.1 Good Practice Means:

- Adoption of British Water Ski Child Protection Policy and Procedures;
- Promotion of the policy to all Club members and parents to illustrate the Clubs' commitment to a safe environment;
- Always working in an open environment (e.g. avoiding private or unobserved situations and encouraging an open environment - i.e. no secrets);
- Treating all young people equally, and with respect and dignity;
- Always putting the welfare of young people first, before winning or achieving goals;
- Maintaining a safe and appropriate distance from participants (e.g. it is not appropriate to have an intimate relationship with a young person or to share a room with them) and in some cases it may be a serious breach of the British Water Ski Code of Ethics and Conduct (Appendix C) and be unlawful;
- Building balanced relationships based on mutual trust which empowers young people to share in the decision-making process;
- Making sport fun, enjoyable and promoting fair play;
- Ensuring that if any form of manual/physical support is required, it should be provided openly and according to guidelines provided by the British Water Ski Instructor and Coach Education Programme. Care is needed, as it is difficult to maintain hand contact positions when a young person is constantly moving. Young people and parents should be provided with information regarding coaching practices and physical contact which is required for personal safety or because there is no other suitable coaching method. Consent must be obtained using Template Five;

- Keeping up to date with technical skills, qualifications and insurance in sport;
- If groups have to be supervised in the changing rooms, always ensure parents/Teachers/Coaches/Instructors/Officials work in pairs;
- Ensuring that if mixed teams are taken away, they should always be accompanied by a male and female member of staff. (N.B. However same gender abuse can occur);
- Ensuring that at competitions or residential events, adults should not enter young people's rooms or invite young people into their rooms. If an adult is working in a supervisory capacity, they should only enter the young people's rooms when accompanied by another adult;
- Being an excellent role model - this includes not smoking or drinking alcohol in the company of young people and promoting a healthy diet;
- Giving enthusiastic and constructive feedback rather than negative criticism;
- Recognising the developmental needs and capacity of young people - avoiding excessive training or competition and not pushing them against their will;
- Securing parental consent in writing to act in loco parentis (Template Five), if the need arises to give permission for the administration of emergency first aid and/or other medical treatment;
- Keeping a written record of any injury that occurs, along with the details of any treatment given. Where staff witness an injury this must be reported to the parents at the first opportunity;
- Requesting written parental consent if Club Officials are required to transport young people in their cars (Template Five).

3.1.2 Coaching Ratios

When working with groups of children under 8 years of age Government Guidance states clearly that there should be one supervising adult for every six children (Care Standards Act 2000). Participants under the age of 17 must be supervised at all times and cannot be included in staffing ratios. For young people over the age of 8, experience has shown that a ratio of one adult to ten participants is a minimum requirement in keeping with models of best practice.

The national guidance states that the level of supervision should take account of:

- The age and ability of the young people;
- The activity being undertaken;
- Children's growing independence;
- Children's need for privacy;
- The geography of the facility being used;
- The risk assessment.

If there is an accident or an incident involving a young person or member of staff, you should ensure that there are enough people remaining to supervise the group safely.

Instructors/Coaches working with young people should not work in isolation. Good practice suggests that at least one other adult in addition to the Coach should be present at every session. The additional adult does not have to be a qualified Instructor/Coach.

3.1.3 Changing Rooms

Where practical, participants should be supervised at all times in the changing rooms by two members of staff. Adult staff should not change or shower at the same time using the same facility as participants. If you are involved in a mixed gender team, separate changing facilities should be made available. If a young person is uncomfortable changing or showering in public no pressure should be placed on them to do so. Encourage them to shower and change at home. If your Club has participants with disabilities involve them and their carers in deciding how they should be assisted and ensure they are able to consent to the assistance that is offered.

Any staff, medical or otherwise, for example a male Instructor/Coach working with female participants, must not be present in the changing rooms whilst participants are getting showered or changed.

No photographic equipment should be allowed in the changing room environment. This includes cameras, video cameras, camera mobile phones etc.

3.1.4 Treatment of Young People

- It is recommended that no young person should be treated in any way in a situation where the young person is on his/her own in a treatment room with the door closed;
- It is strongly recommended that all treatment procedures should be 'open' i.e. the door remains open, parents are invited to observe treatment procedures. Where strict medical confidentiality is to be observed then parents of the young person should be invited to attend;
- It is recommended that if treating an area of the body which is potentially embarrassing to a young person (i.e. the groin) a suitable consenting adult acting as a chaperone should be present;
- It is important to maintain medical confidentiality and patient dignity at all times;
- Prior to medical treatment being carried out on a young person, parental consent in the written form must be sought where appropriate (Template Five);
- It is recommended that all treatment procedures are fully explained to the young person and verbal consent is given before they are carried out.

➡ 3.2 Practice to be Avoided

The following should be avoided except in cases of emergencies. If cases arise where these situations are unavoidable they should only occur with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge at the Club or the young person's parents. For example, a young person sustains an injury and needs to go to hospital, or a parent fails to arrive to pick a young person up at the end of a session (Appendix E):

- Never spend excessive amounts of time alone with young people away from others;
- Never take young people to your home where they will be alone with you.

3.2.1 Practice never to be sanctioned

The following should never be sanctioned. You should never:

- Engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games, including horse play;
- Share a room with a young person;
- Allow or engage in any form of inappropriate touching;
- Allow young people to use inappropriate language unchallenged;
- Make sexually suggestive comments to a young person, even in fun;
- Reduce a young person to tears as a form of control;
- Allow allegations made by a young person to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon;
- Do things of a personal nature for young people or disabled adults, that they can do for themselves;
- Invite or allow young people to stay with you at home unsupervised.

N.B. It may be sometimes necessary for staff or volunteers to do things of a personal nature for young people, particularly if they are young or are disabled. These tasks should only be carried out with the full understanding and consent of parents and the participants involved. There is a need to be responsive to a person's reactions. If a person is fully dependant on you, talk with him/her about what you are doing and give choices where possible. This is particularly so if you are involved in the dressing or undressing of outer clothing, or where there is physical contact, lifting or assisting a young person to carry out particular activities. Avoid taking the responsibility for tasks for which you are not appropriately trained.

If any of the following incidents should occur, you should report them immediately to another colleague and make a written note of the event. Parents should be informed of the incident:

- If you accidentally hurt a participant;
- If he/she is distressed in any manner;
- If a participant appears to be sexually aroused by your actions;
- If a participant misunderstands or misinterprets something you have done.

3.3 Relationships of Trust

“The inequality at the heart of a relationship of trust should be ended before any sexual relationship begins.” Caring for Young People and the Vulnerable? Guidance for Preventing Abuse of Trust (Home Office, 1999).

This statement recognises that genuine relationships do occur between the different levels of volunteers and participants in a group but that no intimate relationship should begin whilst the member of staff or volunteer is in a ‘position of trust’ over them. The power and influence that the older member has over someone attending a group or activity cannot be under-estimated. If there is an additional competitive aspect to the activity and the older person is responsible for the young person’s success or failure to some extent, then the dependency of the younger member upon the older will be increased. It is therefore vital for volunteers to recognise the responsibility that they must exercise in ensuring that they do not abuse their positions of trust. Young people aged 16-18 can legally consent to some types of sexual activity; however, in some provisions of legislation they are classified as children.

If you engage in an intimate or inappropriate relationship with a young person it is a breach of the British Water Ski Code of Ethics and Conduct and as such will result in disciplinary action.

In certain circumstances the ‘abuse of trust’ is a criminal offence (Sexual Offences Act 2003, the Government are currently considering extending these guidelines to include Sports Coaches).

3.4 Guidelines on Photography and Use of Video

British Water Ski is keen to promote positive images of young people participating in Waterskiing and is not banning the use of photographic or videoing equipment. However, there is evidence that some people have used sporting events as an opportunity to take inappropriate photographs or film footage of young people.

It is advisable that all Clubs adhere to the appropriate guidelines detailed in Appendix D.

3.4.1 Use of Images of Young People

The use of images of young people, for example on the web, in the media or in publications:

- Ask for parental permission to use the young person’s image. This ensures that they are aware of the way the image is to be used to represent the sport;
- Ask for the young person’s permission to use his/her image. This ensures that he/she is aware of the way the image is to be used to represent the sport;
- If the young person is named, avoid using his/her photograph;
- If a photograph is used, avoid naming the young person;
- Only use images of young people in appropriate dress, to reduce the risk of inappropriate use, and to provide positive images of the young people;
- Encourage the reporting of inappropriate use of images of young people. If you are concerned, report your concerns to a Club Official or the Club Welfare Officer.

3.4.2 Use of Video as a Coaching Aid

There is no intention to prevent Instructors/Coaches using video equipment as a legitimate coaching aid. However, participants and their parents should be aware that this is part of the coaching programme and care should be taken in storing such films.

The parents and young people must provide written consent for the use of photography and video analysis (Template Six).

4. Recognition of Poor Practice, Abuse and Bullying

Introduction

Child abuse can and does occur outside the family setting. Even for those experienced in working with child abuse, it is not always easy to recognise a situation where abuse may occur or has already taken place. The staff and volunteers in Waterskiing, whether in paid or voluntary capacity, are not experts at such recognition. However, they do have a responsibility to act if they have any concerns about the behaviour of someone (an adult or another young person) towards a young person and to follow the procedures in this document.

4.1 Poor Practice

Allegations may relate to poor practice where an adult’s or another young person’s behaviour is inappropriate and/or may be causing concern. In the application of this policy, poor practice includes any behaviour which contravenes the British Water Ski Code of Ethics and Conduct (Appendix C), infringes an individual’s rights and/or is a failure to fulfil the highest standards of care. Poor practice is unacceptable in Waterskiing and will be treated seriously and appropriate actions will be taken.

4.2 Abuse

Abuse can happen wherever there are young people of any age. The effects of abuse can be so damaging and if untreated, they may follow a person into adulthood. For example, a person who has been abused as a young person may find it difficult or impossible to maintain stable, trusting relationships, become involved with drugs or prostitution, attempt suicide or even abuse a young person in the future.

4.2.1 Disabled People

There have been a number of studies, which suggest young people (or adults) with disabilities, are at increased risk of abuse. Various factors contribute to this, such as stereotyping, prejudice, discrimination, isolation and a powerlessness to protect themselves, or adequately communicate that abuse has occurred’.

4.2.2 Race and Racism

Young people from ethnic minority groups (and their parents) are likely to have experienced harassment, racial discrimination and institutional racism. Although racism causes significant harm it is not, in itself, a category of abuse. All organisations working with young people, including those operating where ethnic minorities are numerically small, should address institutional racism, defined in the Macpherson Inquiry Report of the death of Stephen Lawrence as ‘the collective failure by an organisation to provide appropriate and professional service to people on account of their race, culture and/or religion.’

4.2.3 Abuse and Neglect

Somebody may abuse or neglect a young person by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Young people maybe abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by a stranger.

Neglect

Where adults fail to meet a young person's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the young person's health or development (e.g. failure to provide adequate food, shelter and clothing, failing to protect a young person from physical harm or danger, or the failure to ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment). It may also include refusal to give young people love, affection and attention.

Neglect in sport could include a Teacher or Coach not ensuring young people were safe, exposing them to undue cold, heat or to unnecessary risk of injury.

Physical Abuse

Where adults physically hurt or injure young people by hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, and burning, biting, scalding, suffocating, drowning or otherwise causing physical harm to a young person. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent feigns symptoms of, or deliberately causes ill health to a young person whom they are looking after e.g. factitious illness by proxy or Munchausen's syndrome by proxy.

Examples of physical abuse in sport may be when the nature and intensity of training and competition exceeds the capacity of the young person's immature and growing body; where drugs are used to enhance performance or delay puberty.

Sexual Abuse

Where girls and boys are abused by adults (both male and female) who use young people to meet their own sexual needs. This could include full sexual intercourse, masturbation, oral sex, anal intercourse and fondling. Showing young people pornographic material (books, videos, pictures) or talking to young people in a sexually explicit manner is also a form of sexual abuse.

In sport, coaching techniques, which involve physical contact with young people, could potentially create situations where sexual abuse may go unnoticed. The power of the Instructor/Coach over young performers, if misused, may also lead to abusive situations developing.

Emotional Abuse

The persistent emotional ill treatment of a young person such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the young person's emotional development. It may involve conveying to young people that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on young people. It may involve causing young people to feel frightened or in danger by being constantly shouted at, threatened or taunted which may make the young person very nervous and withdrawn. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of ill treatment of a young person.

Emotional abuse in sport may occur if young people are subjected to constant criticism, name-calling, sarcasm, bullying or unrealistic pressure to perform to high expectations consistently.

The above definitions are adapted from Department of Health (1999) Working Together to Safeguard Children - A Guide to Inter-Agency Working to Safeguard and Promote the Welfare of Children.

4.2.4 Indicators of Abuse

Indicators that a young person may be being abused include the following:

- Unexplained or suspicious injuries such as bruising, cuts or burns, particularly if situated on a part of the body not normally prone to such injuries;
- An injury for which the explanation seems inconsistent;
- The young person describes what appears to be an abusive act involving him/her;
- Someone else (a young person or adult) expresses concern about the welfare of another young person;
- Unexplained changes in behaviour (e.g. becoming very quiet, withdrawn or displaying sudden outburst in temper);
- Inappropriate sexual awareness;
- Encouraging sexually explicit behaviour;
- Distrust of adults, particularly those with whom a close relationship would normally be expected;
- Has difficulty making friends;
- Is prevented from socialising with other young people;
- Displays variations in eating patterns including overeating and loss of appetite;
- Loses weight for no apparent reason;
- Becomes increasingly dirty or unkempt.

It should be recognised that this is not exhaustive and the presence of one or more of the indicators is not proof that abuse is actually taking place. A good working relationship with the parent will help to identify any concerns that a young person maybe experience e.g. family bereavement.

It is not the responsibility of those working in Waterskiing to decide that child abuse is occurring but it is there responsibility to act on any concerns (Section 5).

→ 4.3 Bullying

It is important to recognise that in some cases of abuse, it may not always be an adult abusing a young person. It can occur that the abuser may be a young person, for example in the case of bullying. Bullying may be seen as deliberately hurtful behaviour, usually repeated over a period of time, where it is difficult for those being bullied to defend themselves.

Nancy Duin defined bullying as 'repeated (systematic) aggressive verbal, psychological or physical conduct by an individual or group against another person or persons' (Bullying, a Survival Guide, produced by BBC Education).

4.3.1 Typical Targets

Although anyone can be the target of bullying, victims are typically shy, sensitive and perhaps anxious or insecure. Sometime they are singled out for physical reasons - overweight, physically small, having a disability or belonging to a different race, faith or culture.

4.3.2 Bullying Venues

Girls and boys can be bullies although it seems to be more conspicuous in boys. Although bullying often takes place in schools² research shows it can and does occur anywhere where there is inadequate supervision - on the way to and from school, at a sporting event, in the playground and changing rooms.

4.3.3 Bullies

Bullies come from all walks of life; they bully for a variety of reasons and may even have been abused. Typically, bullies can have low self-esteem, be excitable, aggressive and jealous. Crucially, they have learned how to gain power over others and there is increasing evidence that abuse of power can lead to crime³.

4.3.4 Bullies in Sport

The competitive nature of sport makes it the ideal environment for the bully. The bully in Waterskiing can be:

- A parent who pushes too hard;
- A Coach who adopts a 'win-at-all-costs' philosophy;
- A participant who intimidates inappropriately;
- A Club Official who places unfair pressure on a person;
- A spectator who shouts abuse.

4.3.5 Forms of Bullying

Bullying can include:

- Physical e.g. hitting, kicking and theft;
- Verbal e.g. name calling, constant teasing, sarcasm, racist or homophobic taunts, threats, graffiti and gestures;
- Emotional e.g. tormenting, ridiculing, humiliating and ignoring;
- Sexual e.g. unwanted physical contact or abusive comments.

4.3.6 Indicators of Bullying

The damage inflicted by bullying can be frequently underestimated. It can cause considerable distress to young people, to the extent that it affects their health and development or, at the extreme, causes them significant harm (including self-harm). There are a number of signs that may indicate that a young person or disabled person is being bullied:

- Behavioural changes such as reduced concentration and/or becoming withdrawn, clingy, depressed, tearful, emotionally up and down, reluctant to go to school, training or sports club;
- A drop off in performance in school or standard in sport;
- Physical signs such as stomach-aches, head-aches, difficulty in sleeping, bed-wetting, scratching and bruising, damaged clothes and bingeing for example of food, cigarettes and alcohol;
- A shortage of money or frequent loss of possessions.

4.3.7 Reporting Bullying

Regardless of who the perpetrator might be, the signs of bullying should be reported to a person of responsibility (Section 5).

It is important that bullying is recognised and Clubs take appropriate action and rigorously enforce anti-bullying strategies. It is vital not to underestimate the damage that can be caused by bullying.

¹Kerr, A (1999) Protecting Disabled Children and Adults in Sport and Recreation. Contact Disability Sport England (Tel: 020 7490 4919).

²Research by the University of Sheffield, reported in the BBC Education publication (1994) by Goldsmiths College, London, showed that 10% of primary school children and 4 % of secondary school children are bullied once a week.

³The BBC Education publication (1994) also indicates that bullies are four times more likely to become criminals.

5. Responding to Disclosure, Suspicions and Allegations

British Water Ski's primary responsibility is to ensure that concerns and any relevant information are passed on to the Police and Social Services without delay. These organisations have the statutory responsibility to make enquiries to establish if a child is at risk of harm.

→ 5.1 How to Respond to a Disclosure from a Young Person

5.1.1 Actions to Take

If a young person informs you directly that he/she, or another young person, is concerned about someone's behaviour towards them (this is termed disclosure), the person receiving information should:

- React calmly so as not to frighten or deter the young person;
- Tell the young person that he/she is not to blame and that he/she was right to tell;
- Take what the person says seriously, recognising the difficulties inherent in interpreting what is said by a young person who has a speech disability and/or differences in language;
- Keep any questions to an absolute minimum to ensure a clear and accurate understanding of what has been said;
- Reassure the young person but DO NOT make promises of confidentiality which might not be feasible in light of subsequent developments;
- Record in writing exactly what has been said using the young person's words as soon as possible. Use the British Water Ski Incident Report Form (Template Four) forward a copy to Social Services and Police (as directed) and to the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer;
- Seek advice immediately from the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer. If he/she is unavailable the local Social Services or Police should be contacted immediately, they will advise on the action to be taken, including advice on contacting the parents. Expert advice can also be provided by the NSPCC Helpline on 0800 800 5000 or Childline on 0800 1111.

5.1.2 Actions to Avoid

The person receiving the disclosure should not:

- Panic;
- Allow their shock or distaste to show;
- Do not ask questions other than to clarify that you have enough information to act;
- Speculate or make assumptions;
- Make negative comments about the alleged abuser;
- Approach the alleged abuser;
- Make promises or agree to keep secrets.

N.B. It may not be that all young people are able to express themselves verbally. Communication difficulties may mean that it is hard for them to complain or to be understood. Sometimes it is difficult to distinguish the signs of abuse from the symptoms of some disabilities or conditions, in relation to the nature of the individual's impairment. However, where there are concerns about the safety of a young person, record exactly what has been observed in detail and follow the procedures to report these concerns as detailed in 5.2 and 5.3.

NSPCC
Cruelty to children must stop. FULL STOP.

➔ 5.2 Responding to Concerns about Possible Abuse from Inside the Sport

If a young person informs you directly that he/she is being abused within the Waterskiing environment OR through your own observations or through a third party you become aware of possible abuse or poor practice within the sport you must REACT IMMEDIATELY.

5.2.1 Poor Practice

Reporting Procedures

If, following consideration, the allegation is about poor practice (see definition at 4.1) then the Club Welfare Officer will report it to the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer. Action

- The British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer and/or one or more members of the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group, will make the decision on how the allegation is to be dealt with e.g. internally by the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group, externally as a matter for Social Services and/or the Police or referral back to the Club Welfare Officer.
- Alleged minor poor practice will be referred back to the Club with advice on the process to be followed:
 - Complaints procedure;
 - Disciplinary procedure;

- No case to answer;
 - Complaint resolved with agreement between parties;
 - Training/mentoring agreed;
 - More significant concerns emerged (refer back to British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group).
- Serious poor practice, poor practice with wider implications or alleged child abuse will follow one of below processes:
 - Child protection investigation;
 - Criminal investigation/proceedings;
 - Investigation upon disciplinary proceedings - including possible temporary suspension of person accused.
 - The British Water Ski investigation will be pending the outcome of the Social Services or Police investigation. The possible outcomes being:
 - No case to answer;
 - Less serious - referred to complaints procedures;
 - Disciplinary hearing - sanctions;
 - Civil proceedings.
 - A decision will also be made with regard to suspending the individual concerned, pending the outcome of the internal or external enquiry;

Possible Outcomes of the British Water Ski Child Protection Disciplinary Hearing

- No case to answer;
- Warrants advice/warning as to future conduct/sanctions;
- Further training and support needed;
- Banned.

Appeals

The appeals procedure is available to anyone under investigation as part of natural justice. The British Water Ski Child Protection Disciplinary Appeal Panel will exclude anyone sitting on the initial panel, excluding the Secretary. The panel should comprise of a chair and two other members, with the Secretary in attendance. Every organisation and participant wishing to appeal against the decisions made by the British Water Ski Child Protection Disciplinary Panel must do so in writing, to be received by the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer within seven days of the decision being made.

Monitoring and Evaluation

To be conducted at the close of each case by the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group to see if any changes need to be made to policies/procedures or lessons that can be learnt.

5.2.2 Possible Abuse Situation

If a young person says or indicates that he/she is being abused, or information is obtained or observations are made which gives concern that a young person is being abused, you must REACT IMMEDIATELY.

- Ensure the safety of the young person - if the young person needs immediate medical treatment, take the young person to hospital or call an ambulance, inform doctors of your concerns and ensure they are aware it is a child protection issue;
- If available contact the Club Welfare Officer immediately who will follow the reporting procedures detailed below. If the Club Welfare Officer cannot be contacted or is the subject of the allegation, then the person that has the concerns about the young person's welfare should follow the reporting procedures.

Reporting Procedures

- Seek advice immediately from the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer. If he/she is unavailable the local Social Services or Police should be contacted immediately, they will advise on the action to be taken, including advice on contacting the parents. Expert advice can also be provided by the NSPCC Helpline on 0800 800 5000 or Childline on 0800 1111;

- Make a full and factual record of events utilising the Incident Report Form (Template Four) and forward a copy of the recorded information, as directed to the Social Services and/or Police and to the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer who will take the appropriate action. Contact the Club Welfare Officer as soon as possible.

Possible Outcomes

Where there is a complaint of abuse against a member of staff or volunteer, investigations may include:

- Police enquiry;
- Criminal proceedings;
- Referral back to the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group.

The result of the Police and/or Social Services investigation may help inform the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group investigation, but not necessarily.

→ 5.3 Responding to Concerns about Possible Abuse from Outside the Sport

If a young person informs you directly that he/she is being abused outside the sport environment (i.e. at home, school or some other setting outside the sport) OR through your own observations or through a third party you become aware of possible abuse outside the sport environment you must REACT IMMEDIATELY. (See section 4.2.4 for Indicators of Abuse).

- Ensure the safety of the young person – if the young person needs immediate medical treatment, take the young person to hospital or call an ambulance, inform doctors of your concerns and ensure they are aware it is a child protection issue;
- If available contact the Club Welfare Officer immediately who will follow the reporting procedures detailed below. If the Club Welfare Officer cannot be contacted, then the person that has the concerns about the young person's welfare should follow the reporting procedures.

Reporting Procedures

- Seek advice immediately from the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer. If he/she is unavailable the local Social Services or Police should be contacted immediately, they will advise on the action to be taken, including advice on contacting the parents. Expert advice can also be provided by the NSPCC Helpline on 0808 800 5000 or Childline on 0800 1111;

Contact the Club Welfare Officer as soon as possible;
- If the individual being accused is from within the Waterskiing environment, the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer will consider suspension of the individual concerned following contact with Social Services or the Police. The case will be referred to the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group following the Social Services and /or Police investigation.

It is never easy to respond to a young person who tells you that they are being abused and you may feel upset and worried yourself. Make sure that you are offered adequate support by discussing the matter with the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer.

→ 5.4 Reinstatement and Aftermath

5.4.1 Reinstatement

Irrespective of the findings of Social Services and/or Police investigations, the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group will assess all individual cases to decide whether a member of staff or volunteer can be reinstated and how this can be sensitively handled.

This may be a difficult decision; particularly where there is insufficient evidence to uphold any action by the Police. In such cases the British Water Ski Child Protection Case Management Group must reach a decision based upon the information available which could suggest that on a balance of probability, it is more likely than not that the allegation is true. The welfare of young people should always remain paramount.

5.4.2 Support to Deal with the Aftermath

Consideration should be given to what support may be appropriate to young people, parents and members of staff. Use of Helplines, support groups and open meeting will maintain an open culture and help the healing process. The British Association of Counselling Directory¹ may be a useful resource.

Thought should be given about what support may be appropriate for the alleged perpetrator of the abuse.

→ 5.5 Allegations of Previous Abuse

Allegations of abuse may be made some time after the event (e.g. by an adult who was abused as a young person or by a member of staff who is still currently working with young people). Where such an allegation is made, the Club should follow the procedures as detailed in 5.2 and 5.3. This is because other young people, either within or outside sport, may be at risk from this person.

→ 5.6 Dealing with Bullying

The same procedure should be followed as detailed in 5.3 if bullying is suspected. All settings in which young people are provided with services or are living away from home should have rigorously enforced anti-bullying strategies in place.

5.6.1 Action to Prevent Bullying and Help those Being Bullied

- Take all signs of bullying very seriously;
- Encourage all young people to speak and share their concerns². Help the victim speak out and tell the person in charge or someone in authority. Create an open environment;
- Investigate all allegations and take action to ensure the victim is safe. Speak with the victim and the bully(ies) separately;
- Reassure the victim that you can be trusted and will help them, DO NOT make promises of confidentiality;
- Record in writing exactly what has been said using the young person's words as soon as possible. Use the British Water Ski Incident Report Form (Template Four);
- Report any concerns to the Club Welfare Officer or the school (wherever the bullying is occurring).

5.6.2 Actions to take Toward the Bully(ies)

- Talk with the bully(ies), explain the situation, and try to get the bully(ies) to understand the consequences of their behaviour. Seek an apology for the victim(s);
- Inform the bully(ies) parents;
- Insist on the return of the 'borrowed' items and that the bully(ies) compensate the victim(s);
- Impose sanctions as necessary;
- Provide support for Instructor/Coach of the victim(s);
- Encourage and support the victims to change their behaviour;
- Hold meetings with the families to report on progress;
- Inform all organisation members of any action taken;
- Keep a written record of any action taken.

5.7 Records and Information

Information passed the Social Services or Police must be as helpful as possible, hence the necessity for making a detailed record at the time of the disclosure/concern. Ideally this information should be compiled utilising the British Water Ski Incident Report Form (Template Four).

The information needs to include the following:

- Details of the young person i.e. age/date of birth, address, race, gender and ethnic origin;
- Details of the facts of allegations or observations;
- A description of any visible bruising or other injuries;
- The young person's account, it is can be given, of what happened and how any bruising or other injuries occurred;
- Witnesses to the incident(s);
- Any times, dates or other relevant information;
- A clear distinction between what is fact, opinion or hearsay;
- A signature, time and date on the report.

Reporting the matter to the Police or Social Services department should not be delayed by attempts to obtain more information. Wherever possible, referrals telephoned to the Social Services department must be confirmed in writing within 24 hours. A record must be made of the name and designation of the Social Services member of staff or Police Officer to whom the concerns were passed, together with the time and date of the call, in case any follow-up is needed. A copy of this information should be sent direct to the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer.

5.8 Confidentiality

The legal principle that the 'welfare of the child is paramount' means that the considerations that might apply to other situations in the organisation, should not be allowed to over-ride the right of young people to be protected from harm.

However, every effort must be made to ensure that confidentiality is maintained when an allegation has been made and is being investigated.

Information will be stored in a secure filing cabinet at the British Water Ski Head Office, with limited access to designated people, in line with data protection laws.

5.9 Whistle Blowing Policy

If you have a concern with regard to the behaviour of an adult towards a young person, it is important that you share your concerns with the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer. If you have a concern regarding the British Water Ski Lead Child Protection Officer you should share your concerns with the British Water Ski Executive Officer.

All information received and discussed will be treated in the strictest confidence and only shared with those individuals with British Water Ski who will be able to manage and resolve the situation. On occasion it may be necessary to seek advice, or inform the statutory agencies e.g. Social Services and the Police.

All concerns will be taken seriously and managed accordingly within the policy and procedures for the welfare of young people in Waterskiing.

You can call the NSPCC Child Protection Helpline on 0808 800 5000 or Childline on 0800 1111 directly if you feel more comfortable in doing so. Both Helplines are open 24 hours a day and calls are free of charge.

5.10 If an Allegation is made Against You

Any concerns involving the inappropriate behaviour of an adult towards a young person will be taken seriously and investigated. If you are the person who is the centre of an allegation, the situation will be explained to you and you may be asked to cease working with young people in Waterskiing, you will be informed as soon as possible based on advice from the Statutory Agencies. This may result in suspension from activity within Waterskiing whilst a full investigation is being carried out. This is to protect all parties involved.

British Water Ski will assess, on a case-by-case basis, any support needed for the person who has had the allegations made against them. They may choose to appoint an independent officer to provide support to the accused.

²It is believed that up to 12 children per year commit suicide as a result of bullying, if anyone talks about or threatens suicide, seek professional help immediately.

Appendix D ❖ British Water Ski Guidelines for Photography and Filming at Events and Competitions

If you are asking the press or a professional photographer to a competition or event, it is important to ensure they are clear about expectations of them in relation to child protection and the welfare of young people.

- Ensure that each person wishing to take photographs/film at an event completes an Event Registration Form (Template Seven);
- Provide a clear brief about what is considered appropriate, in terms of content and behaviour;
- Issue the photographer with identification which must be worn and visible at all times;
- Inform young people and their parents that a photographer will be at the event and ensure that you receive their consent to both the taking and publication of films or photographs;
- Unsupervised access to young people or one-to-one photographs/filming sessions at the event should not be permitted;
- Do not approve photographic sessions outside the event.

If parents or other spectators are intending to photograph or video the event, they should be made aware of your expectations:

- Spectators should be asked to register at the event, if they wish to use photographic equipment (Template Seven);
- Young people and parents should be informed that if they have concerns they can report these to the event organiser;
- Concerns regarding inappropriate or intrusive photography should be reported to the event organiser or Official and recorded in the same manner as any child protection concern.

❖ Public Information

The specific details concerning photographic/video and filming equipment should, where possible, be published prominently in event programmes and should be announced over the public address system prior to the start of the event.

The recommended wording is:
'In line with the recommendation in the British Water Ski Child Protection Policy and Procedures, the promoters of this event request that any person wishing to engage in any video, zoom or close range photography should register their details with staff before carrying out any such photography. The event organisers reserve the right to decline entry to any person unable to meet or abide by the organiser's conditions.'

How to deal with someone who is using photographic or filming equipment who has not sought permission

There will be occasions, from time to time, when someone you do not recognise will be taking photographs or filming participants and/or spectators at an event. If this situation arises, you should have the confidence and courage to challenge the individual/s to ensure and maintain the safety of the event.

- You should:
- Approach the individual;
 - Challenge the individual as to who they are and why they are using photographic or filming equipment without permission;
 - Make them aware that they should have sought permission from the organisers to use their equipment and advise them of the protocol;
 - Make them aware that if they are seen to be doing anything untoward, they will be reported to the Police.

Appendix E ➡ British Water Ski Transport Guidelines

Staff/volunteers should:

- Contact the alternative contact name/number;
